After hours call service

The after hours service offered by Goodman is for emergency situations only. In the event of an emergency outside of business hours, please follow the process below:

1. Does the issue require Building Management action before the next working day?
2. If yes – call your Building Manager to advise them of the problem, or leave a message. If you can't get hold of your Building Manager please refer to your After Hours contacts.
3. Depending on the urgency of the issue, and if no response is received, call the emergency back up number 02 9230 7123.

Unsure of who your Building Manager or After Hours contact is?
